

Resist

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

- 1) Resist fully lives its values for the purpose of modeling what a foundation could be.
- 2) Resist's funding process is shaped by grassroots leadership, including fully-funded Resist grantees, for the purpose of maximizing impact.
- 3) Resist offers opportunities for grantees to connect with each other and the larger movement for the purpose of supporting a more resourced, whole, abundant, and sustainable movement.
- 4) Resist uses its position as a grassroots foundation embedded in national movement spaces for the purpose of connecting emerging strategies with community efforts.
- 5) Resist joins and influences networked philanthropic spaces for the purpose of increasing both resources and accountability to frontline grassroots communities.
- 6) Resist's budget is more mission-aligned each year for the purpose of redistributing more resources to frontline communities.
- 7) Resist moves from transactional to transformative fundraising and communications for the purpose of building relationships and shifting culture for a more liberatory and sustainable movement, organization and community.
